

Historic Glen Davis

Saturday 12th-Sunday
13th May 2018

Day 1: Saturday 12 May 2018

Dubbo ~ Lue ~ Glen Davis

LD

This morning we board Langley's Luxury coach and start off on our trip towards Glen Davis. After morning tea, we will visit the Lue Pottery. Owned by Des and Jan Howard who moved to Lue in 1981, Des first commenced potting full time in 1969 in Sydney. They obtain most of their materials locally and make domestic and decorative items from porcelaneous stoneware.

After our tour of Lue Pottery, we head to the award winning Rylstone Olive Press. Rylstone Olive Press is known to always produce Australia's highest quality Extra Virgin Olive Oils. These exceptional oils from the beautiful Central Tablelands of New South Wales have gained an international reputation of being one of the finest and freshest oils and are sought after and shipped to some of the best chefs in the world. We stop for some lunch before heading to our stunning, historic accommodation for the night, The Glen Davis Boutique Hotel. The hotel was built in 1939 to the lavish standards of the day and was said to be the 'finest hotel west of the Blue Mountains.' The hotel was built to serve the thriving Oil Shale Mine and Refinery in Glen Davis. The hotel provided accommodation for visiting dignitaries and officials. After the mine closed in 1952, the town became a ghost town and the Hotel became a Marist retreat until the mid 1960's. After a short time as a holiday farm and bistro, the Hotel lay derelict and vandalised for 10 years until husband and wife team, Adam and Alison, single-handedly took on its complete restoration. Please be aware that while we are staying at the Hotel, you will be required to use shared bathrooms during your stay.* Tonight we enjoy dinner at our accommodation.

Day 2: Sunday 13 May 2018

Glen Davis ~ Mudgee ~ Dubbo

BD

This morning after breakfast, we visit the Glen Davis Shale Oil Works ruins for a tour. Located in Capertee Valley, the Oil Works was one of the largest employers in the area. Construction of the shale oil works started in 1938 and the plant was commissioned in 1939, with operations starting on 3 January 1940. In 1941, a total of 19,426,880 Litres of shale oil was produced at the works. In 1942, under the National Security Act, the government took over the company and in August 1949 acquired the private shareholdings. After expansion in 1946, a shortage of mined shale reduced its output. In December 1950, it was decided to end the project. In 1951 the last full year before closure, it produced only 6,600,000 litres. Government funding was ceased and in 1952 Glen Davis was closed on May 30.

After our tour, we return to our accommodation for morning tea before heading back into Mudgee for lunch (own expense).

This afternoon we visit a winery before we depart on our journey returning to Dubbo late afternoon.
